

NEWS RELEASE

10 May, 2010.

Newly qualified lawyer for Midlands' employment specialist

Midlands' employment law specialists W.H. Law has welcomed Charlotte Wood on to the team as a fully qualified solicitor.

Charlotte has completed her training following two years at W.H. Law LLP of Dudley.

Partner Mike Rogers said: "Charlotte has worked hard and is an asset to our team. We are delighted to retain her services at W.H. Law as a qualified solicitor.

Charlotte, from Mid Wales, Graduated in Law from the University of Liverpool and went on to study for a Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice at the College of Law, Chester. She worked as a paralegal in Dudley before joining W.H. Law in 2007.

She said: I have always had a keen interest in employment law and litigation. I chose to carry out my training with W.H. Law as not only do they specialise in these legal disciplines they also share in both my principles and ideals as to the service we should provide to clients.

"Employment law is an ever changing and extremely diverse area of the law. I enjoy the client interaction and tailoring advice to suit the individual needs of the client as no two clients, or two problems, are ever the same."

For further information contact Charlotte Wood or Mike Rogers at W.H. Law on 01384 216920.

ENDS

Notes to Editors:

W.H. Law specialises in Workplace and Health and Safety law, providing a holistic service to businesses, focusing primarily on the assessment and management of the risks involved in employing people within a business and providing assistance with litigation where necessary.

A training service is available for managers and personnel officers.

Further information can be found on-line at: <http://www.whlawllp.co.uk/index.htm>